It is a very poor commentary on a party's record and principles when it can't give away its State nominations.

It takes Mr. Fratt some time to make up his mind as to whether he will accept defeat or decline it. Officially, he has not been heard from.

If the Republican convention in New York to-day doesn't break up in a row, it will be a damaging blow to the hopes of the Democrats. They expect a political earthquake down there to-day.

Nelson W. Aldrich, of Rhode Island, who has been nominated for the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of General Burnside, is a present member of Congress. He is 40 years old, a merchant by occupation, and a stanch Republican.

A very elegant photograph of President Garfield has been sent to Queen Victoria at her special request. It is of a large size, the same as hung in the catafalque, and is richly framed. It was taken by J. F. Rider, of Cleveland, and Mrs. Garfield regards it as the best photograph ever taken of her husband.

The State agricultural society is better off after the fair than many supposed, and the receipts are much greater than was at first reported. The fair was by no means a financial failure, notwithstanding the bad weather, but considering all the circumstances, it was a very flattering success. The receipts from all sources foot up about $12,000 or a little more. Had the weather been propitious, the exhibition of 1881 would have been the most successful ever held by the society.

There is no hope that Guiteau will have any special counsel in his trial. His brother-in-law, Scoville, has said publicly, that "there won't be any great effort made, I can tell you that, to defend him. If I appear at all, I will simply put before the jury matters relating to his mental condition, whether the indictment is faulty or not. Nobody is going to furnish any money to defend him. I cannot advance him any, nor do I propose to raise any for this object. I am satisfied that no one could start a subscription and raise 10 cents in thirty days for such a purpose."

Guiteau has been indicted by the grand jury of the District of Columbia, for the murder of President Garfield. The only point that Scoville, Guiteau's counsel, will make, is the insanity of the murderer. He does not appear anxious to acquit Guiteau, but wants to see that he has a fair trial. He will undertake to prove that insanity has existed in the family, and will attempt to show that the prisoner should be lodged in an asylum instead of being sent to the gallows. A Washinton rumor has it that Ben Butler will assist in the defense. At the age of sixty-three, Butler still craves for notoriety, and it would not be strange if he consented to act as counsel for the assassin of the President of the United States.

Colonel W. H. Jacobs, has made up his mind to decline the Democratic nomination for State Treasurer. He doesn't want to be defeated. He has no ambition for a little cheap glory, especially when it is expected by the Democrats that if he accepts he will seal that acceptance by a liberal donation to the campaign. He hurriedly looked over the field, saw no chance of election, started on a business trip North, and left behind him word that he would not accept the nomination. The State committee will now be compelled to meet and fill the vacancy on the ticket, and it is believed that other nominees will decline. It is not strange that business men do not want places on the Democratic ticket. They can't afford to run away from business and chase after so empty a thing as a candidacy on the Democratic State ticket.

The New York Republican convention meets to-day. It will be a very important gathering, and there are some who are anxiously looking for a family disturbance. But while there has been a great deal of interest shown in selecting delegates to the State convention, and in the contests for those delegates the Conkling and anti-Conkling men measuring swords, it is believed by Republicans generally that the convention will pass off comparatively quiet. The latest reports show that the Garfield Republicans—those opposed to Conkling—will be in the majority in the convention. A careful canvass of the uncontested delegates shows that the Garfield Republican delegates number 279, while the Conkling Republicans number 171, leaving a majority of the Garfield Republicans over the Conkling Republicans of 108. The terms "Garfield Republicans" and "Conkling Republicans" are used here because they are so designated in New York. That the factions are not properly named, is a matter of fact. Those who are known as Conkling Republicans are not anti-Garfield Republicans. They have as much respect for the memory of the noble dead as the most devoted of the Garfield Republicans have; and the Garfield Republicans are by no means all personal enemies of Mr. Conkling. It is bad that the two factions in New York are designated by these names, and in the canvass they should be wiped out. To show that Mr. Conkling does not propose to "run" the convention, it is stated he will not be there. Collector Robinson, who has made a careful survey of the field says there will be no bolting, no splitting, no row, and no attempt to "run things."

THE PRESIDENT.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct, 4.—The President arrived here this afternoon, and was driven directly to his temporary residence at Senator Jones' house. A few persons called on him this evening. The President's health is better than it was when he went to New York. It was not generally known that for two or three days last week he was quite sick, having caught a severe cold, and for a time being, it was feared, threatened with pneumonia. President Arthur has surprised even his most intimate friends with his reticence. He said almost nothing to any of them of his purpose, and a warm friend says that Grant was, in his reticent days, a chatterbox in comparison with Arthur now. He has, however, informed his friend that it is his purpose to make no change at present in offices, and to make such appointments only that are necessary because of vacancies.

CABINET GOSSIP.

WASHINGTON, Oct, 4.—With the return of the President to Washington cabinet speculation is revived. What President Arthur will do seems to be one of those things that "no fellow can find out" in advance. As is perfectly proper, he has shared his counsels with none but intimate friends, and they, of course, are not at liberty to speak on the subject. With a few of the members of the late President's cabinet General Arthur has talked freely regarding his intentions, but has avoided saying anything so them about cabinet changes. A gentleman occupy a high government position, and who is intimately acquainted with one of the President's confidential advisers, the following information about the cabinet this afternoon.

Said he: "There will be no changes in the cabinet until Congress meets in December, unless Attorney General MacVeagh should be superseded before that time. He is emphatic in his determination to cut loose from the new administration as soon as possible, and the President may feel inclined to accommodate him immediately.

A TRUE BILL RETURNED.

Guiteau Indicted for the Murder of President Garfield—His Counsel.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—The grand jury of the district to-day made a presentment against Guiteau for the murder of the late President, and the District Attorney had drawn the indictment. The prisoner may be arraigned to-morrow or the arraignment maw be postponed until some later date. George Scoville, of Chicago, Guiteau's brother-in-law, arrived this afternoon, and after a brief consultation with the District Attorney he was driven to the jail and had a long interview with the assassin. To-morrow he will be admitted to practice in the district courts.

The plea of insanity will be entered in behalf of Guiteau, and a postponement of the trial for at least two months will be requested of the court in order to enable the prisoner's counsel to prepare his case and secure the attendance of witnesses.

Mr. Scoville is a man about 35 years of age. In personal appearance the resembles ex-Congressman and at present First Comptroller Lawrence, of the Treasury department. In conversation to night he gave much interesting information about his client. "I shall plead the insanity of the prisoner as an excuse for his crime," said Mr. Scoville. "I shall not deny the jurisdiction of the district courts. If Guiteau is a sane man he deserves to suffer the full penalty of the law, and I would not do anything to save him from hanging. I simply want him to have a fair trial under legal forms, and if the country, as well as the jury cannot be convinced that the assassin was not legally responsible for his acts, he should suffer death. The injustice of an immediate trial is manifest. I had not seen the prisoner since the 4th of July until to-day, and there is a large amount of information to be obtained from him, as well as to secure the attendance of witnesses, which will require time before the trial can properly take place."

THE DEAD PRESIDENT.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Oct. 4.—The angel statue, designed to be placed over the Garfield pavilion in Monumental Park, but not finished in time for the obsequies, was hoisted to its place, and to-night for the first time a calcium light was thrown on it. The effect was magical. The blackroof of the pavilion absorbs the rays of light so as to leave the gilt globe with the white angel poised on it, the the wings almost touching over the head, and the arms extended, as if saying, "Peace on earth, good will to men," standing as if floating in the air. Thousands gazed on the remarkable spectacle in awe.

THE STAR-ROUTE RING.

The Ringsters Making Ready for the Trial.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 4.—The members of the star-route ring, who have been brought into court by information, have decided that the government is thoroughly in earnest, and will, therefore, appear at court to-morrow prepared to give bail for their appearance. It is not thought that a very large bail will be fixed by Judge Cox, for even the government does not think that the accused intend to run away. They will by every means in their power seek to throw the cases out of the court as fast as the government presents them, and, failing in that, are prepared for a long and wearisome trial. It is not the intention of the Government to proceed against the accused in most of the cases by information. In almost all the cases, if not all, the evidence will be laid before the grand jury, or enough of it to warrant presentation of the indictment of that body. Information was used in this case rather than indictment by the grand jury, because the unexpected action of District Attorney Corkhill in adjourning the grand jury would have prevented the trial of this case at all, as the statute of limitation would have run against it. Satisfied now that the government means to prosecute, the star-route ring do not appear to feel very greatly alarmed. Out of many prosecutions begun, of this sort, by the government, there have been but very few convictions. Congressional, social, political influences are often brought to bear sufficient to defeat the hand of justice. Some of the strongest cases which the government were preparing against members of the ring are barred by the statute of limitation. It is understood that the strongest case against Dorsey, that of the fraudulent bonds which he caused a postmaster in Arkansas to fill out in blank, is barred by the action of the statute of limitation.

F. H. Drake, Esq., Detroit, has recovered from a terrible skin humor, which covered his face and hands, by using Cuticura Resolvent internally and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally. This is good news.

SURPRISE PARTY.

A very pleasant gathering was held at the residence of James W. Jack, in Johnstown, on Tuesday afternoon and evening last. His many friends, ladies largely, predominating, assembled at his home early in the afternoon, bringing baskets well filled with provisions. After enjoying a social time the company came to order. Rev. Mr. Jackson, in behalf of the many friends, presented Mr. Jack with a beautiful autograph album, a copy of Longfellow's poems, a beautifully bound volume entitled "Papyrus Leaves," and a fruit knife. Mr. Jack returned thanks in a feeling manner. Supper then followed. Jimmie is one of Johnstown's most worthy young men, and the presents bestowed were only a faint expression of the esteem in which he is held in the community. He expects to leave soon for Minnesota.

—To-day, as the children were going home from school, a little son of Ed. Squires was run over and hurt about the limbs, but on examination no bones were found broken.

—W. H. Pease and wife, have gone to Dayton, Ohio, for a few weeks' recreation.

—Mr. Alfred Clough is going to enlarge his house. Don't know what this means.

—We understand Mr. James Van Etta has brought his family to the village to spend the winter.

—Mr. G. S. Dodge has moved his family into the Pomeroy house.

JOHNSTOWN.

—The citizens of Johnstown have a fine treat in store for them in the lecture of Hon. Pliny Norcross, of Janesville, in the Congregational church, on Friday evening, October 7th. Subject, "The old world." Admission 15 cents; children 10 cents. Proceeds to be used for the church.

—The communion services last Sabbath were especially interesting from the presence of Deacons Fletcher and Cheney who were among the founders of the church.

THE CONVENTION'S CHOICE.

The Republicans of the Third District Nominate John Conley for the Assembly.

The Republicans of the Third assembly district met in convention at the Court house this afternoon, and were called to order by D. F. Sayre, of Porter.

R. T. Pember, of Johnstown, was chosen chairman and F. C. Buten, of Milton, secretary.

The following were named as a committee on credentials; E. P. Clarke, of Milton, W. F. Aikin, of Harmony, and C. M. Treat, of Clinton.

After the adoption of their report, B. S. Hoxie, of Porter, offered a resolution, demanding that the candidate nominated should pledge to use his influence to submit a prohibition measure to the vote of the people. The resolution was lost.

The chairman appointed as tellers, E. R. Squires, of Porter, and H. Brace, of Fulton.

An informal ballot was taken resulting:

Whole number of votes	34
Necessary to a choice	18
John Conley	13
S. L. Lord	10
James Menzies	7
Fred Gould	3
William Gardiner	1

A formal ballot was then taken, resulting:

Whole number of votes	34
Necessary to a choice	18
John Conley	14
S. L. Lord	10
James Menzies	7
Fred Gould	3

The second and third and fourth formal ballots resulted the same.

A fifth ballot resulted in no change, but the sixth showed a little break as follows:

John Conley	14
S. L. Lord	8
James Menzies	7
Fred Gould	5

The seventh ballot resulted:

John Conley	14
S. L. Lord	12
James Menzies	7
Fred Gould	1

The eighth ballot resulted the same as the fifth. The ninth the same. The tenth ditto.

The eleventh ballot gave John Conley one more, making him 15, and James Menzies one less, the others the same as before.

The twelfth ballot the same as the eleventh.

The thirteenth resulted:

John Conley	16
S. L. Lord	12
James Menzies	3
Fred Gould	3

The fourteenth ballot stood the same.

The fifteenth ballot resulted in a choice:

John Conley	18
S. L. Lord	11
James Menzies	2
Fred Gould	3

John Conley was thereupon declared the nominee, and this was made unanimous.

The vote on the motion introduced by Mr. Hoxie was reconsidered, and adopted, Mr. Conley prefacing the vote by an expression indorsing the same.

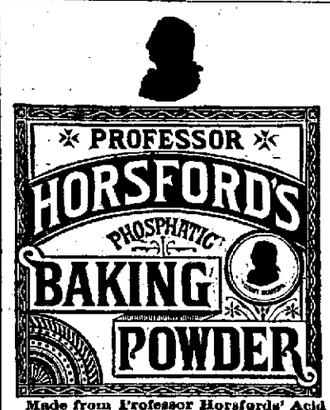

The chairman appointed as the standing comittee: F. A. Ames, S. C. Carr, James Hadden, Jr.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 5.

Concerning Store Bills.

If I were to proffer a bit of advice to young people at the outset of their housekeeping, the sentence that I would put foremost would be, "Don't run up a store bill!" And there are people no longer very young who would profit by heeding the advice.

The habit of having small bills charged becomes, after a time, a seeming necessity to certain classes of people, while to many of them it seems such from the outset of their beginning. Certain articles are required, there is no ready cash to pay for them, the shop-keeper is asked to charge the amount, and so the account continues with frequent additions, until at the end of a year there's a large bill to be paid for what, it appears, there has been no substantial benefit from. My knowledge of "store bills" is of an entirely indirect character, for if my memory serves me rightly I never had a store bill charged. My father very thoroughly trained me never to buy an article unless I had the money in my pocket to pay for it, and the older I grow, the more apparent the soundness of the principle becomes. If I had no other cause for which to thank his memory, that alone would be sufficient to fill my heart with a large measure of gratitude, as it has saved me a great deal of annoyance, as well as of money. It has saved me from buying what I really did not need. It has saved me the mortification of small debts. It has taught me to discriminate between real and apparent necessities. It has held me to a wise decision in innumerable instances. It is an invaluable doctrine to teach a child, and I in turn shall teach it to mine with explicit care. But "indirect knowledge" is sometimes very emphatic, and from what I know of "store bills" I judge there is nothing else that eats up so surprisingly an amount of money, and yields in turn so little satisfaction. I have observed, too, that the habit of making such bills leads people into dishonest dodging, and bills are run up here and there, whenever one can get trusted, until finally honest payment is out of the question, and the shop-keeper may "whistle" for his money. There are people who have no conscience whatever about their indebtedness to shop-keepers, their entire anxiety being limited to ways and means of supplying their wants, and will wear a garment that is unpaid for with all the aplomb imaginable. Such people have no true pride of character and the audacity with which they face the world is simply incomprehensible. But to the person of ordinary feeling and honesty, to be in the meshes of small debts must be very harrowing. I can't well imagine anything more uncomfortable than to owe for one's tea and coffee, sugar and rice, nutmeg and allspice—to always be cognizant of the fact that the food you eat and the clothes you wear are unpaid for! A large debt, like that for land, or for any basis upon which one's income is to be obtained, is altogether a different affair, while to be owing for what is all the time being lost sight of, really, what is more annoying and degrading, too? As a rule, I opine, the bulk of store bills is made up of what could have been dispensed with until the money was at hand to pay for them. The people who at once dispute this are those who have never made the experiment of dispensing with what can not be paid for on the spot, and to my mind there is no comparison between the "enjoyment" of gratifying one's appetite at the cost of self-respect and the freedom and independence of mind that comes from self-denial, for the worst slavery is that which hampers the mind and vexes and irritates its serenity. To incur debts for the sake of "keeping up appearances," is to mortgage one's liberty to the most ungrateful of things—the public. I can see no difference between living off the charity of others and in buying what you require "on credit," where you do not see your way clear to the honest payment of such debts, except that in the one case the help extended is gratuitous, while in the other it is extortion in legal parlance. The result is the same, it is living off the labor and income of other people.

There is no time in the career of householders when self-denial and a resolve to keep free from small debts can be more easily put in practice than by young people at the outset of their housekeeping. They have youth and health and hope and ambition, and can forego many luxuries and "necessaries" that would be hard for old people to dispense with. At all events, I believe it to be the experience of the majority of people that money, or its equivalent, usually comes somehow to meet the demands of what is absolutely essential, and that it is possible for even the poorest to avoid running in debt for their daily expenses.

I used often to see a poor little lady in Paris who earned a modest living by teaching music and French, and when pinched by her poverty she comforted herself by saying: "It is so distingue to be poor—and honest," and I often think of the consolation lying in the truth of her remark. To be poor, and to owe no man beyond one's means, is consistent with great happiness. But there is nothing at all "distinguished" in being poor, and in debt up to your ears. I would have peace and freedom of mind, if I had to live on a crust and had nothing better with which to serve my friends.—Mary Wager-Fisher, in Rural New Yorker.

Debris of Old Buildings.

The varied materials collected from old buildings in course of demolition form enormous accumulations in some of the upper wards in New York City, where one can purchase anything in the building line from a piece of old lead pipe, to a magnificent French plate glass. Timber of all sorts, from giant crossbeams to little joist posts, can be had in these yards, where there are also window sashes, window weights, doors, shutters, iron and wooden staircases, mantels, frames, doorposts, flooring, lining, tiling, wainscoting, bricks, stone fronts, granite steps, granite columns, iron girders and iron fronts, iron stair-frames, and, in fact, anything and everything that has ever been used in a house. Door knobs, bell handles, iron railings, and balconies, not to mention the cornices, are in profusion and confusion. The profits of this business are said to be great, and while it frequently happens that large figures are paid for some houses, the profits are correspondingly great. Recently some houses on Twenty-third Street were taken down, and as they were finished in hard wood, ornamented with mirrors and great spacious fireplaces, the price demanded was very large, but the old brass work and glass alone paid the purchaser for what he had invested, and the wood, stone and brick of the house was all clear profit. The two firms which do the largest traffic of the kind carry to their yards about fifty truck-loads of material a day. Then there are dozens of others in the trade who do a much more modest business.—N. Y. Industrial World.

Locking the Trunk.

"My dear," said Mrs. Spoopendyke, as she arose from her knees, hot and tired from packing, and rubbing the small of her back as she straightened up, "I'm all through now, and I wish you would lock the trunk."

"Certainly," replied Mr. Spoopendyke, dropping his paper and slamming down the lid. "All you've got to do is just fit the hasp in the lock and turn the key. So!"

But the key didn't quite turn, and Mr. Spoopendyke hit the hasp with the side of his fist and tried it again.

"Don't it work?" asked Mrs. Spoopendyke, watching the proceeding with considerable interest.

"It'll work if you'll let it alone," said Mr. Spoopendyke, severely, and he raised the lid, dropped it again, pounded the hasp, and wrenched at the key with all his strength. "Stand back and give me room, can't you!" he growled, as he pressed down on the cover and gave the key quick twists in a vain effort to catch the lock unawares.

"Why don't you rest your weight on it and let me lock it?" asked Mrs. Spoopendyke, fluttering around her husband and wondering if he was thoroughly aware that his plug hat was immediately under the lid.

"Have you got the time to keep away from this thing, and let me work it?" demanded Mr. Spoopendyke, contemplating his wife with a Spartan expression of visage. "'Spose I can do anything with you sitting on my elbow? If you'll go down cellar for a minute I'll lock this trunk," and Mr. Spoopendyke banged away at the hasp and breathed hard. But his best efforts could only turn the key half way.

"Oh! ain't I glad you couldn't lock it!" exclaimed Mrs. Spoopendyke, anxious to stay her husband's growing wrath. "I forgot to put in your walking-cane."

"Dod-gast the cane!" sputtered Mr. Spoopendyke. "'Spose it's going to lock any easier with a dod-gasted walking-cane sticking out at one end? Who says I can't lock it? What's the reason I can't lock it?" and he stood off and fetched the hasp a tremendous kick. "Anything else you've forgotten to put in?" and he sprang on the lid and tugged at the key with his head thrown back and his teeth set. "Got a couple of mirrors you want in here? Any china around the house that wants a ride in this trunk? Want to put in that dod-gasted ass on the top floor who tries to play the fiddle?" and he flopped off on the floor and banged at the hasp again.

"Let me sit on it," suggested Mrs. Spoopendyke, climbing up without waiting for a response. "Now try it."

Mr. Spoopendyke fumbled around and worked at the hasp and key, but fruitlessly.

"Can't ye sit any harder than that?" he yelled, as the key stuck and wouldn't turn either way. "'Fraid of breaking the measly thing? Press down, can't ye?"

Mrs. Spoopendyke squirmed around and said, "now, dear," and then looked over to see how he was getting on, but still the lock was obdurate.

"Dod-gast the measly trunk!" howled Mr. Spoopendyke, firing the key out the window and giving the trunk a farewell kick. "If you want it locked you get a blacksmith and a steam derrick," and Mr. Spoopendyke threw himself into a chair and pretended to bury himself in his paper.

"I don't know how we're ever going to get it open," said Mrs. Spoopendyke, after a long silence.

"Get what open?" growled the husband.

"The trunk. Now I remember, it's got a spring lock, and when you took the key out it locked itself. I don't suppose we can ever find the key."

"That's it!" yelled Mr. Spoopendyke. "You know all about it, now! Why didn't you tell me it was a spring lock? What d'ye keep it to yourself for?"

"I forgot," whimpered Mrs. Spoopendyke, "but it will be all right. I can open it."

"Oh, you can open it!" snorted Mr. Spoopendyke. "You're an opener! All you want is to be sharpened on both sides to be an oyster-knife! With a dark lantern and a skull-cap you'd make a full set of burglar's tools. Oh, yes, you'll open it! If you had a loose handle and one corner kicked off, you'd get rich as a screw-driver!" and Mr. Spoopendyke tore out of the house to see if he could borrow something to pry open the unfortunate trunk.

"That gives me time to pack the valise," murmured Mrs. Spoopendyke, "and, as I've got another key to the trunk, we'll do pretty well after all," and the worthy lady began to jam nightshirts and hair-oil into the bags, together with sandwiches and tooth-brushes, wondering betimes whether Mr. Spoopendyke's silk hat had been so badly smashed that it wouldn't do to go fishing in on rainy days, even if it did not look well enough for church.—Brooklyn Eagle.

The Biggest Fool in America.

"Henry White, why do you weep?" was the query directed at a tall, wasp-waisted young man who held a handkerchief to his eyes as he came into court.

"I'm sorry I got into such a scrape!" sobbed Henry.

"We are all sorry after it is too late. You are an agriculturist?"

"Yes, sir."

"Only twenty-four hours ago you left your quiet home amidst the daisies. You were coming to the city to sell some clover honey, and your aged father placed his hand on your head and warned you to beware of the frothy lager."

"He did—he did! Oh, sir, I suppose I am the biggest fool in America!"

"Perhaps you are. After you had sold your honey for cash you said to yourself that a schooner of beer would brace you up for the trip homeward. In an hour you were drunk and had lost all your money."

"Y-y-yes, sir!"

"And now what?"

"I'll be gosh-darned if I know!" wailed the prisoner.

"Being this is your first appearance here I suppose I could suspend sentence and let you go."

"I s'pose you could."

"Will you let this be a solemn warning to you?"

"I hope to die if I don't!"

"Well, you may walk softly out, but in the future beware. Give schooners the cold shake and look with distrust upon the pony."—Detroit Free Press.

—A journalist of the Philadelphia Times has been on a fishing trip. "Sometimes," he writes, "a raw-looking country lad, with a hook and line made fast to a stick cut from a tree, will bring in all the fish he wants, while the tourist, with split bamboo rod and silver-plated reel, will have to buy of the lad, or go home without fish."

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Cuticura

PYÆMIA

Or Blood Poisoning, which Results in Abscesses, Ulcers, Sores, Carbuncles, Boils and Itching Humors, Cured.

FEVER SORE.

What I tell you is the truth; told for no other purpose but to testify to the merits of the CUTICURA REMEDIES. Mr. Frederick Yenton, of this town, has been troubled for years with a Fever Sore on one of his legs. Last fall and all winter he could hardly walk a step. I induced him to take your REMEDIES. He has taken about four bottles CUTICURA RESOLVENT, and used the CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP externally. His leg to-day is almost well—can walk with ease. It was a sight to behold—black, and swollen very badly. I wish you could see his leg to-day. The change would astonish you.
CHAS. H. TRIPP, Alfred, Me.

SALT RHEUM.

Will McDonald, 2542 Dearborn St., Chicago, gratefully acknowledges a cure of Salt Rheum on head, neck, face, arms and legs for seventeen years; not able to walk except on hands and knees for one year; not able to help himself for eight years; tried hundreds of remedies; doctors pronounced his case hopeless; permanently cured by the CUTICURA REMEDIES.

GREAT BLOOD MEDICINES

The half has not been told as to the great curative powers of the CUTICURA REMEDIES. I have paid hundreds of dollars for medicines to cure diseases of the blood and skin, and never found anything yet to equal the CUTICURA REMEDIES.
CHAS. A. WILLIAMS, Providence, R. I.

TREATMENT.

The Cuticura treatment for the cure of Skin, Scalp and Blood Diseases, consists in the internal use of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the new Blood Purifier, and the external use of CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP, the Great Skin Cures.

Price of CUTICURA, small boxes, 50c; large boxes, $1. CUTICURA RESOLVENT, $1 per bottle. CUTICURA SOAP, 25c. CUTICURA SHAVING SOAP, 15c. Sold by all druggists.

TARRANT'S SELTZER APERIENT

"What will TARRANT'S SELTZER APERIENT cure?" asks the sufferer from a multitude of diseases. We answer: It will remove from the system the active cause of most of the diseases that flesh is heir to. It won't mend a broken limb, nor close a bullet hole; but it may be profitably used in stomachic diseases. It will do no one any harm, and may do much good. Try it and see if it won't suit your case.

Trade Mark

FOR

NERVOUS DEBILITY

SOLD IN AYER'S

AND SPERMATORRHŒA.

A valuable Discovery and New Departure in Medical Science, an entirely New and positively effective Remedy for the speedy and permanent Cure of Seminal Emissions and Impotency by the only true way, viz: Direct Application to the principal Seat of the Disease, acting by Absorption, and exerting its specific influence on the Seminal Vesicles, Excretory Ducts, Prostate Gland, and Urethra. The use of the Remedy is attended with no pain or inconvenience, and does not interfere with the ordinary pursuits of life; it is quickly dissolved and soon absorbed, producing an immediate soothing and restorative effect upon the genital and nervous organizations wrecked from self-abuse and excesses, stopping the drain from the system, restoring the mind to health and sound memory, removing the Dimness of Sight, Nervous Debility, Confusion of Ideas, Aversion to Society, etc., etc., and the appearance of premature old age usually accompanying this trouble, and restoring perfect Sexual Vigor, where it has been dormant for years. This mode of treatment has stood the test in very severe cases, and is now a pronounced success. Drugs are too much prescribed in these troubles, and, as many can bear witness to, with but little if any permanent good. There is no Nonsense about this Preparation. Practical observation enables us to positively guarantee that it will give satisfaction. During the eight years that it has been in general use, we have thousands of testimonials as to its value, and it is now conceded by the Medical Profession to be the most rational means yet discovered of resisting and curing this very prevalent trouble, that is well known to be the cause of untold misery to so many, and upon whom quacks prey with their useless nostrums and big fees. The remedy is put up in neat boxes, of three sizes. No. 1, (enough to last a month,) $3; No. 2, (sufficient to effect a permanent cure, unless in severe cases,) $5; No. 3 (lasting over three months, will always restore and restore vigor in the worst cases,) $7. Sent by mail, sealed, in plain wrappers. Full DIRECTIONS for using will accompany EACH BOX.

Send for Sealed Descriptive Pamphlets giving Anatomical Illustrations and Testimony, which will convince the most skeptical that they can be restored to perfect manhood, and fitted for the duties of life, same as if never affected. Sold ONLY by

H. A. PATTERSON, P. M.

MILTON.

—Postmaster Green met with an unfortunate accident last week. He climbed into a tree to gather some wild grapes and fell to the ground. He struck on his back, fracturing a rib, and bruising himself badly. His lungs were injured also, but it is hoped that his injuries will not prove very dangerous.

—Rev. George B. Utter, editor of the Narragansett Weekly, and his wife, of Westerly, R. I., arrived in town last Thursday, and were the guests of E. P. Clarke. The reverend gentleman has been in the editorial business all his life, and publishes one of the best weeklies in the State.

—J. B. Anderson shipped seven car loads of oats, wheat and barley, last week, an indication that he is paying outside figures for anything in the grain line.

—Prof. R. B. Anderson, of Madison, was in town on Saturday visiting Prof. Evenson, of the college faculty.

—Horace Crandall, of Ashway, R. I., was in town last week visiting relatives.

—The students have organized a cadet company and are being drilled by W. P. Clark. If a sufficient number can be secured the State will furnish an outfit for them.

—The ladies of this place have forwarded a barrel of bedding to the Michigan sufferers. Chicago will please take note of the fact.

—Perry has moved his meat market a few feet north and has sold the lot on which it stood to Herman Millard, who will put up a new building thereon at once.

—The pay car was here last Tuesday and paid their employes in gold. The officials took supper at the Borden house.

—D. T. Hudson sold Williams almost five hundred dollars worth of hogs last week. Not a bad thing to take those good times.

—J Frank Hubbard, of the firm of C. Potter Jr. & Co., of Plainfield, New Jersey; was here last week visiting his friends.

—A new time card took effect on this division of the St. Paul road last Sunday. The night express going west leaves this station at 11:25 p. m., and going East at 4 a. m. No other change of importance to our readers has been made.

—The school board are about to erect a liberty pole in the park, in accordance with a vote of the district. A sound burr oak tree was needed for the base and the only person in the district who had anything in that line suitable for the purpose declined to give or sell a tree. Fortunately a more public spirited man was found in the person of Thos. H. Austin, who told the district clerk to cut down the best tree he could find on his premises—without money, and without price. It is a good thing for Milton that she has friends in adjoining towns who think more of friends than of the almighty dollar.

—T. W. Saunders, Esq., of Milwaukee, was in town Sunday, visiting his parents.

—Mr. Witter, of Alfred Center, New York, was in town this week, the guest of Professor Williams. Mr. W. is a member of the class of '82 in Alfred University.

—Mrs. George Algard, of Oregon, was in the village this week, visiting relatives.

—D. Williams shipped a car load of live hogs Monday morning that averaged over three hundred pounds. The market opens dull this week at $6 to $6.25 for fair to good hogs.

—The parishioners and friends of Rev. W. T. Millar will hold a "welcome" social at the parsonage on Saturday evening. The public are cordially invited.

—Mr. Smith, of West Winfield, New York, was in town last week visiting friends.

—The remains of Oman, who died at Brodhead on Tuesday of last week, were brought here on Wednesday for burial in our cemetery. The old gentleman resided here during the pastorate of his son-in-law, Rev. H. S. Eldredge, and had the esteem of all who knew him.

—The cool wave of Tuesday was not unacceptable.

—R. H. Saunders took the train on Monday for Des Moines, Iowa, where he has an engagement with J. M. Smith's orchestra for the winter. He is a fine clarinet player and leaves a vacancy in our band that will be difficult to fill.

—The Orophilian lyceum have purchased an organ for the use of the lyceum.

—The college journal association have transferred the stock in the company to the Orophilian, Philomathean and Iduna lyceums. At a meeting of the lyceums held on Monday evening, the following staff was elected: Editor-in-chief, D. F. Brown; literary editor, J. W. McGowan; exchange editor, W. Tomkins; local editor, Miss M. E. Douglass; personal editor, Miss A. S. Whitford. The October number will appear about the 15th inst.

Nearly a Miracle.

E. Ascnith Hall, Binghampton, N. Y., writes. "I suffered for several months with a dull pain through left lung and shoulders. I lost my spirits, appetite and color, and could with difficulty keep up all day. My mother procured some BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS; I took them as directed, and have felt no pain since first week after using them, and am now quite well." Price $1,00, trial size 10 cents.

SHOPIERE.

—Miss Anna Kline is much better.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Butler have buried their little boy, Louis, two years old.

—Ed. Case having lived in the country long enough, has bought Wm. Lather's house and lot and will take up his abode in the city.

—Mr. Alfred Latta, of Battle Creek, Mich., was the guest of old friends here last week. He taught school in this village 37 years ago in the old log school house.

—Mr. Geo. Townsan started with his horse and carriage for Kalamazoo, Mich., where he intends to make his home—joy go with our bachelor brother.

—Mr. Julius Townsan and wife, of Handibal Mo., have been home on a visit.

—A large harvest of clover seed will be gathered here this fall.

—Buyers are picking up some large flocks of sheep at from $3.00 to $3.50 per head.

—Hogs are still going up—that is up Salt river with the cholera.

—Miss M. M. Bell, goes to Algona, Iowa, to take charge of a school there October 5th.

An old lady writes us: "I am 65 years old and was feeble and nervous all the time, when I bought a bottle of Parker's Ginger Tonic. I have used a little more than one bottle and feel as well as at 30 and am sure that hundreds need just such a medicine. See advertisement.

Household Words.

James Pearson, 28 Sixth Street, Buffalo, says: "I have used your SPRING BLOSSOM for myself and family, and think it invaluable as a household remedy, for regulating the bowels, liver and kidneys. I shall never be without it." Price 50 cents, trial bottles 10 cents.

CLINTON.

—Rev. Dr. Snowdon, of Sharon, preached at the M. E. church Sunday morning. The Dr. joined the M. E. conference quite recently and is to be located at Oconto the ensuing year.

—Mrs. C. O. Myers of Chattanooga, Tenn., who has been visiting Clinton friends for a few days returned to her home on Monday. Her mother, Mrs. A. A. Stowe went with her and will spend the winter south.

—Arrangements are being made for a series of scientific and literary lectures during the coming winter.

—George Lamphier's baby boy was buried last Wednesday. Elder Marston conducted the services.

—N. C. Winegar, of Bradford, has purchased Mr. John Hammond's residence and will next year be a resident of our village.

—Mr. C. H. Rustad, our merchant tailor, moves into Mrs. Hoskins' house this week, and Jay W. Jones will occupy the A. J. Sweet house.

—Reuben has gone into the country to work so as to avoid controversy.

—A union temperance meeting of much interest was held at the Baptist church Sunday evening.

—There were three deaths in Clinton last Sunday. Our much esteemed citizen, Mr. C. E. Richardson, after several months illness died quite suddenly of a disease of the heart. Mr. Stewart Flint and Mr. F. Scholpski each lost children of the age of one year.

Set Back 42 Years.

"I was troubled for many years with Kidney Complaint, Gravel, &c.; my blood became thin; I was dull and inactive; could hardly crawl about; was an old, worn out man all over; could get nothing to help me, until I got Hop Bitters, and now I am a boy again. My blood and kidneys are all right, and I am as active as a man of 30, although I am 72, and I have no doubt it will do as well for others of my age. It is worth a trial.—Father.

MILTON JUNCTION.

—The Grange Building Association has effected the purchase of the building known as Morgan's Hall. This obviates the necessity of their building a new store building as they had intended as there are two good store rooms in the building bought.

—Mr. Grove D. Clarke has taken Mr. Alanson Coon's farm near this village and will take possession soon.

THIS NEW AND CORRECT MAP

Proves beyond any reasonable question that the

CHICAGO & NORTH-WESTERN R'Y

Is by all odds the best road for you to take when traveling in either direction between Chicago and all of the Principal Points in the West, North and Northwest.

Carefully examine this Map. The Principal Cities of the West and Northwest are Stations on this road. Its through trains make close connections with the trains of all railroads at junction points.

THE CHICAGO & NORTH-WESTERN RAILWAY,

Over all of its principal lines, runs each way daily from two to four or more Fast Express Trains. It is the only road west of Chicago that uses the PULLMAN HOTEL DINING CARS.

It is the only road that runs Pullman Sleeping Cars North or Northwest of Chicago. It has nearly 3,000 MILES OF ROAD. It forms the following Trunk Lines: "Council Bluffs, Denver & California Line," "Winona, Minnesota & Central Dakota Line," "Sioux City, Nor. Nebraska & Yankton Line," "Chicago, St. Paul and Minneapolis Line," "Nor. Illinois, Freeport & Dubuque Line," "Milwaukee, Green Bay & Lake Superior Line."

Tickets over this road are sold by all Coupon Ticket Agents in the United States and Canadas.

Remember to ask for Tickets via this road, be sure they read over it, and take none other.

Without doubling on your tracks. This magnificent system reaches almost every important TOWN, CITY and SUMMER RESORT in the GREAT NORTHWEST. It includes the only Through unbroken lines owned by any one Company, Between Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Minneapolis, and forms with its connections the picturesque

MISSISSIPPI VALLEY ROUTE,

Between St. Louis and Northern Minneapolis. It also includes Through Routes between ALL the Terminal Points shown upon this Map, with ample passenger train service upon each.

Remember, this Company OWNS all Roads shown above in heavy lines.

Reference to the Official Railway Guides or the Time Tables published by the Company, will show that the C., M. & St. P. can take you in its Splendid Passenger Trains, at Express Speed, over its own Superb Tracks, FROM almost anywhere TO almost anywhere in the Five Great States named above.

ITS ROAD-BED, SUPERSTRUCTURE and EQUIPMENTS COMBINE ALL MODERN IMPROVEMENTS, AND ARE PERFECT IN EVERY PARTICULAR

It runs its own MAGNIFICENT SLEEPERS upon all Through Trains, and its own PARLOR CARS—the finest in the world.

Its RAILROAD HOTELS and DINING HALLS are noted for their superior excellence.

While it connects the prominent Business Centres of the Northwest, it has also upon its lines more Health and Pleasure Resorts and greater Scenic Attractions than any other system of roads upon the continent.

Its Magnificent New Union Depot, on Madison, Canal and Adams Streets, Chicago, is the most elegant and commodious Passenger Station in the United States.

Has met with unparalleled success in the treatment of all

CHRONIC DISEASES!

OF THE

Throat, Lungs, Heart Stomach, Liver.

Head, nerves, kidneys, bladder, womb, and blood affections of the urinary organs, gravel scrofula, rheumatism, catarrh, asthma, bronchitis, dyspepsia, &c.

DR. PRICE'S REPUTATION!

Has been acquired by candid, honest dealing and years of successful practice.

My practice, not one of experiment, but founded on the laws of Nature, with years of experience and evidence to sustain it, does not tear down, make sick to make well; no harsh treatment, no trifling, no flattering. We know the cause and the remedy needed; no guess work, but knowledge gained by years of experience in the treatment of Chronic Diseases exclusively; no encouragement without a prospect. Candid in our opinions, reasonable in our charges, claim not to know everything, or cure everybody, but do lay claim to reason and common sense. We invite the sick, no matter what their ailment, to call and investigate before they abandon hope, make interrogations and decide for yourselves; it will cost nothing as consultation is free. Visits made regularly.

Dr. V. Clarence Price

Can be consulted at JANESVILLE, MYERS HOUSE, on Saturday, the 5th of November, 1881.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, who will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere 25 cents a bottle.

BRIEFLETS.

—Night chills.

—The city council meets to-night in regular session.

—The doctors report many cases of fever, most of the typhoid type.

—There will be a business meeting of the Janesville Guards to-morrow evening.

—D. C. Ward has taken his pile driver to Jefferson, and started in on bridge building there.

—Mr. and Mrs. Wilkerson, who live on Locust street, have been saddened by the death of their little child.

—The annual convention of the Young Mens Christian Association of this State, opens in Beloit to-morrow.

—The house of Patrick McCue, not far from the Institute for the Blind, was totally destroyed by fire at three o'clock this afternoon.

—The band concert in the park is set for to-night. The indication for the upper lake region are that overcoats will not be uncomfortable.

—The art display of E. B. Heimstreet opened this afternoon. There are a large number of paintings and sketches on exhibition, and some of them are most excellent.

—The Fay Templeton Olivette company is to appear at the Opera house here on the 10th of November. This company has just had a most successful week at the Academy of Music, Milwaukee.

—The funeral of James R. Peterson was held yesterday afternoon, and were attended by a number of sympathizing friends, many of whom followed the remains to their last resting place in Oak Hill cemetery.

—The pleasant relationships established by the Janesville Guards during their southern trip continue, as is evidenced by the receipt of a portrait of Captain J. F. Burke, of the Gate City guards, Atlanta, which is to grace the walls of the Guards' new armory.

—The practice engaged in by small boys of throwing missiles at each other on the streets should be looked after. This morning a couple of boys big enough to know better, were firing potatoes at each other, on Milwaukee street, and one of them struck Harry Moore, one of Burr Robbins' advertising corps, on the eye, inflicting a very painful and ugly bruise.

—Last evening there was another and closing presentation of "The Iron Mask" at the Opera house. The audience was not large, but those who were there were highly delighted, and the play will surely grow in favor. Frederic Bryton is certainly a young actor of great merit and great promise, and the company supporting him are excellent. The play is next to be given at Madison, and the route will be toward the northwest, with the intention of striking St. Paul and Minneapolis, where Bryton has already a very strong hold on the favor of the people.

—Prof. Severance is in the city to meet his opening children's class this afternoon, and the other class at 8 o'clock this evening in Apollo hall, at the conclusion of which there will be a social hop, to which all friends and patrons are cordially invited. Prof. Severance is so favorably known here that little need be said of his skill as an instructor and his character as a genial gentleman. It is to be hoped that his dancing school may be even more popular and prosperous this season than ever, and that all who can will gladly avail themselves of its benefits.

—Next Friday evening Uncle Tom's Cabin is to be given by Anthony & Ellis' celebrated company. Miss Minnie Foster is to appear as "Topsy," in which character she has won for herself high praise. The Memphis university students are to give some of their wonderful songs. The imported pack of Siberian blood hounds and the wonderful trick donkey "Dixie," are also among the novel attractions of the show. The prices are popular, and the house will be crowded without doubt, so those desiring good seats should reserve them at once, the diagram being at Prentice & Evenson's.

—In the organization of the new company which is to continue the Harris works, it is generally understood that Pliny Norcross, Esq., will take the management, and that he will retire from active practice at the bar, after the first of the coming January. It is also understood that S. C. Cobb will retain the position of Superintendent. Thus ably manned, and supported by wise choices for the other positions of trust and responsibility, the success of the enterprise is assured.

ROBBINS HOME AGAIN.

His Railroad Show Meeting with Unequivocal Success Everywhere.

A Talk with McKee, His Advance Man, About the Show.

Yesterday afternoon the advertising car of Burr Robbins Great Railroad Show rolled into Janesville to do the last job of the sason. It is unnecessary to speak favorably of Burr Robbins in Janesville, for as he is one of our most prominent citizens, and bearing as he does the universal reputation of being an honorable showmen, one who never allows any trickery around his shows, and who always gives an entertainment that is not a tissue of gross misrepresentations, but an actual re-production of what his avant curriers proclaim in advance of his show. Previous to the present season Mr. Robbins has run a wagon show of the very best, but his venture this season in the railroad show business is an entirely new field for him, but it has been by no means an unsuccessful venture. Anxious to get a resume of the seasons work, and some points about the great show, a Gazette representative wended his way this morning to the North western depot in quest of the advertising coach. He found at the car, making his final arrangements for the last show of the season, Mr. Frank McKee, the general advertising agent. Those who remember Mr. Geo. K. Steele, who has been Mr. Robbins right hand man ahead for years, would be rather surprised at McKee's appearance. He is certainly the youngest man in the country to fill such an important position, and his smooth jovial unwrinkled brow betokons the youth in all respects, but it is only predominant in his personnel, for he is not only an experienced agent, but possessed of eminent qualifications for the position he holds, and Colonel Robbins has the right man in the right place, to do the work, when he selected McKee.

He is a genial, mild mannered individual, and seems to avoid contact with newspaper notoriety as much as possible.

He invited the Gazette man to a seat, when the Gazette opened the battery immediately.

"Well, McKee, how has the season been with the show," queried the Gazette?

"Remarkably well, sir, and I will tell you why. The name of Burr Robbins as a wagon showman has been a household word in many States for years, and his reputation the very best, but he is not running a wagon show now, but a railroad show of the first order, having the very best attractions in the business, both in his arenic and menagerie department, and for proof of this I refer to the endorsements he has received from the press of many of the leading cities of the country. When I say that business has been remarkably good, I say remarkably from the fact that Colonel Robbins ventured into a new field where he had never been before, into cities where you well know a show is never received with eclat as a general rule, until it has been the rounds and gained its reputation. But it is a fact that Colonel Robbins has played in the big cities of the west and southwest to a large business, and that his show gave satisfaction in every sense of the word, where he went, and they all want Robbins to come again."

"What section have you been in principally?"

"In the spring we went South into Kentucky, and took in southern Indiana, Illinois, and then came back through Ohio into Michigan, where we stayed a solid month, playing in every city and town of any size in the State, and doing the biggest business ever done in the State, turning people away in a great many places. Later we went back into Indiana and Illinois and then came into the northwest through Wisconsin into Minnesota and Dakota. Our business through Minnesota and Dakota was very large, better than even Col. Robbins himself anticipated, notwithstanding that as we were coming out of Minnesota, we had bad weather, business continued big just the same, and I guess Colonel Robbins will return home this fall, satisfied that railroads beats wagons in all respects."

"How about your attractions?"

"They are many, sir, and of the very first quality. The ring performance has been every where pronounced the best ever seen, and the menagerie don't come far behind, so everybody says.

The equal of Charley Fish, as a bare-back rider, does not exist; and he rides with us.

Then we have got Philo Nathans in his four horse act, and Miss Ellen Cook, one of the best equestriennes of the age.

La Salle and Le Favre, the best in the world on the trapeze.

Howard Dorr and Son, gymnasts of national repute.

Neygaard and Martha, late of Barnum's great show, with their trained stallions, and leapers, tumblers, and clowns—all the very best, too numerous to mention.

In the menagerie you will see the finest hippopotamus ever captured, and many other fine specimens of the animal kingdom. The giraffe we had, but he died in Willmar, Minnesota, and therefore unlike other shows we do not advertise him. I will guarantee Janesville never saw a better show than Burr Robbins will give them on the 19th."

"What do you think Colonel Robbins will do next season?"

"As to that I am not fully posted, but one thing I know, the name of Robbins, where he has been this season, will be worth a mint of money, as the people all want Robbins to come again. But the talk is that next season he will have the biggest show on the road."

"How do you account for the season's big success?"

"It is very easily explained. Colonel Robbins' motto is 'Honesty is the best policy.' He has advertised just what he has showed and nothing else. The result is that whereas the people go away from a circus generally full of disappointment, they went away from this show more than satisfied, for they saw everything that was advertised, and even a great deal more. Our reputation followed us from place to place, and business increased constantly because the people were not humbugged or swindled."

"Then you can say with authority that the season has been an assured financial success."

"It has sir, in the biggest kind of a way."

The Gazette man satisfied of Colonel Robbins success, bid McKee good day, certain of one thing that Colonel Robbins has nobody in his employ but gentlemen, who thoroughly look after his interests, and that one thing in particular, has much to do with his success.

The Law of Kindness

Is universal; it affects all the human family, all animals, and may be even be found in patent medicines. Some are drastic, and the patient is obliged to suffer pains worse than the disease; but in cases of obstinate constipation, dyspepsia, there is no remedy so kind, so gentle in its effects, and yet so satisfactory, as BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS. Price $1.00, trial size 10 cents.

OBITUARY.

MRS. ALICE M'GINNITY.

Last evening about 8 o'clock, Mrs. Alice McGinnity breathed her last at the home of her son, Rev. Father McGinnity, pastor of St. Patrick's church, of this city. She had reached about the age of sixty-eight years, and had suffered during the past six years more or less from heart disease and dropsy, but death resulted from a bowel trouble, which had kept her confined to her bed only for the past five days. The death under these circumstances comes with some suddenness, and casts a deep shadow upon the household.

Mrs. McGinnity came to this country from Ireland in 1847 and in that very year settled in this state, and has resided here ever since. Upon the death of her husband, fifteen years ago, she took up her residence with her son, Rev. Father McGinnity, and has made her home with him up to the last. She leaves three other sons and one daughter. One of the sons lives at Denver, and the two other sons and the daughter reside in Lafayette county. To all these who are made to feel the loss of a true mother, the sympathy of many friends will be called forth by the sad event.

The funeral services are to be held at St. Patrick's church to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock, and the remains are to be taken to Lafayette county, and placed beside those of her husband and other departed ones in Willow Springs cemetery near, Mineral Point.

"Sellers' Liver Pills" have been the standard remedy for malaria, liver complaint, costiveness, etc., for fifty years.

PERSONAL.

—F. C. Cook and wife went to Madison to-day for a brief stay.

—Dr. B. T. Sanborn and wife have returned from their wedding trip.

—Mr. and Mrs. George Scarcliff, Jr., are at home from their eastern trip.

—John Dyer, who now runs between Chicago and Milwaukee, is in the city, shaking hands with many friends.

—L. M. Hammond, of Chicago, general western agent of the Charter Oak life insurance company, is in the city.

—Mr. Ed. F. Carpenter and wife returned this afternoon from their Minnesota trip on which they started two weeks ago.

—Rev. O. A. Curtis is soon to change his residence. He will take possession of the Stafford house, on Academy street, lately occupied by Mr. Durkee.

—Mr. J. M. Gargan, Captain of Hose company No. 8, Boston fire department, is in the city, visiting relative, and calling on the boys at the engine houses.

Tumors, erysipelas, mercurial diseases, scrofula, and general debility cured by "Dr. Lindsey's Blood Searcher.

A SHIPMENT OF VALUABLE HORSES.

H. D. McKinney has sold his handsome and promising trotting mare "Hermosilla," by Swigert, to a Massachusetts party, for $2,500, and she will be shipped today. Mr. McKinney also ships in the same car to New York two valuable young colts, King Richard, two years old, a son of Dictator, full brother of Dexter, and a two-year-old called "Senator Sprague," son of Gov. Sprague, his dam "Mila C." For the dam and sire of Senator Sprague, Hon. J. I. Case, of Racine, paid $35,000. Mr. McKinney sold King Richard for $1,000, and paid the same for Senator for a New York party. The above sales merely indicate that it pays to breed trotters and well bred animals.

Bogus Certificates.

It is no vile drugged stuff, pretending to be made of wonderful foreign roots, barks, &c., and puffed up by long, bogus certificates of pretended miraculous cures, but a simple, pure, effective medicine, made of well-known valuable remedies, that furnishes its own certificates by its cures. We refer to Hop Bitters, the purest and best of medicines.—Exchange. See another.

THE WEATHER.

REPORTED BY PRENTICE & EVENSON, DRUGGISTS.

The thermometer at 6 o'clock last night stood at 54 degrees above; at 1 o'clock a. m. to-day, at 42 degrees above; at 7 o'clock a. m. at 40 degrees above; and at 1 o'clock p. m. at 55 degrees above. Partly cloudy.

The indications to-day are, fair weather, northeasterly winds, higher barometer, and stationary and lower temperature.

Many lose their beauty from the hair falling or fading. Parker's Hair Balsam supplies necessary nourishment, prevents falling and grayness, and is an elegant dressing.

—Don't forget Mr. Norcross' lecture at Johnstown, on Friday evening next.

—An arrival at the residence of L. Cheney. It's a boy.

—Mrs. Levi Spear returned last week from her visit East.

RESCUED FROM DEATH.

The following statement of William J. Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our readers. He says: "In the fall of 1876, I was taken with a VIOLENT BLEEDING OF THE LUNGS, followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half dollar. I expended over a hundred dollars in doctors and medicines. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope, but a friend told me of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I laughed at my friends, thinking that my case was incurable, but I got a bottle to satisfy them, when, to my surprise and gratification, I commenced to feel better. My hope, once dead, began to revive, and to-day I feel in better spirits than I have the past three years.

"I write this hoping you will publish it, so that every one afflicted with Diseased Lungs will be induced take DR WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS, and be convinced that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED. I have taken two bottles, and can positively say that it has done more good than all the other medicines I have taken since my sickness. My cough has almost entirely disappeared, and I shall soon be able to go to work." Sold by druggists. 1
